Consolidate by 2018, a social movement addressing the issue of girls and boys out of school across the country by facilitating equitable access to quality education.
FNE

Creation of a Collective for the vote of the FNE law by the Senate with 11 national and international NGOs in April 2015.

Publication in August 2016 of a petition for the vote of the FNE law / collection of 1700 signatures.

Four Meetings with the Education Commission of the Senate on the text of the FNE Act.

Press Conference with the President of the Senate Education Committee.

Meeting with the UN Special Envoy on the Right to Education with the President of the Senate Education Commission.

After 6 years of delay, the advocacy strategy resulted in the law being passed.
Création de structure de Gestion de Proximité et mobilisation sociale pour la rétention scolaire
CE/CME/TSE

- Creation of the Municipal Commission of Education. 13 Committees are created to facilitate the strengthening of school governance at the local level.

- Working meetings with local authorities on the creation of Education Commissions.

- Publication of a booklet on the Communities Management and Development Fund to facilitate the elaboration of education projects by local authorities.

CARE through its advocacy for OOSGB mobilizes the whole educational community of civil society through the CLIO Education Committee, former Ministers of Education, technical staff of the Ministry around participatory governance for the school retention of vulnerable children.
SCHOOL RETENTION POLICY

Working meetings with Inspectors and Ministry Staff on the problem of the education system

Publication of a report on OOSGB and on child domesticity in Haiti in 2014

Presentation of the results of the study on out-of-school children in Haiti in June 2017

CARE with its advocacy facilitates a real focus on vulnerable children through analysis, meetings, media programing, studies and articles by the entire school communities and technical and financial partners.